CONNIE DOYLE MAY GO AFTER NATIONAL SINGLES THIS YEAR

Expects to Get Tryout at Southampton Prior to Tournament at Forest Hills.

By BRYAN MORSE.

Conrad B. Doyle, Washington's pretier tennis player, whose recent showing in the clay court championships in Cleveland. Ohio, is expected to bring him sto the attention of the ranking committee this year, will probably enter committee this year, will probably enter the national singles championship of the United States, to be held at the West Side Tennis Club, Forest Hills, L. I.. August 28.

While an announcement has been made that Doyle and his partner, Henry C. Breck, will not compete in the preliminary doubles championships at the Onwensia Country Club, at Chicago, August 15, it is by no means certain that the pair will not take the trip. Doyle is ready to go, and it is up to Breck as to whether the Middle Atlantic States champions will make the trip to take a crack at the sectionals doubles winners. Business engagements may keep Breck out of the running. In that event Doyle will be unable to enter.

On the other hand, Doyle is more than anxious to get a chance against the top-notchers in the singles competi-On the other hand, Doyle is more than anxious to get a chance against the top-notchers in the singles competition. If it is decided that Breck cannot go to Chicago, Doyle will go to Southhambton. L. I., for the Meadow Club tournament in order to get a workout for the national championships which will be played the next week.

Six years back Connie Doyle took a fiyer at the big tournament, and went up to the third round, being defeated by Gustav Touchard at Newport. Connie and Harold Doyle were entered in the doubles, and got up to the third round, being sent back by Beals Wright and Raymond D. Little.

This year Connie Doyle has shown the best form of recent seasons. For some reason or other the District crack has never had the craze to go gunning for the big ones. Belief has often been expressed here that if Conrad Doyle prepared himself especially for the big tournament and had the opportunity to make a stand, greater laurels would be won. The Cleveland tourney sufficed to show that the Washington man is classed in the fight off players in this country.

Fournier Denies He Was Ever Lumberjack

Jacques Fournier of the White Sox says: "I wish the baseball writers who delight in calling me a reformed lumberjack would quit their kidding. It's true I've lived nearly all my life in the Northwest, but I never tried my hand at that sort of work. "Before breaking into baseball I was a railway express messenger, having graduated to that situation from the leading livery stable of Aberdeen. And I want to say that Aberdeen lost the best buggy washer that ever manicured a hoss when I left."

sure of a place on the varsity this year, will be lost to the Yale eleven for this season, and probably permanently, because of ill health. This news came as a great surprise as Kirkpatrick was apparently one of the huskiest men in the university.

The loss of Kirkpatrick will be particularly severe in that two other linemen are gone from the Yale squad because of the departure of the Yale battery for Tobyhanna. Before they went off officers privately told inquirers that there was no chance that the battery would be back in time for the football season. The football men who are members of the battery are Chub Sheldon, for two years guard on the team, and Jim Braden, star tackle, and end of the ineligibles last fall.

Football practice will start here September 4. Sid Coe, the big assistant trainer for the past twenty years, is now making machine guns for the allies, but will be with the squad on the opening day.
